

BRIDGE PARTNERSHIP BENEFITS

Join the Coalition of the Committed to create lasting economic and social mobility for ALL community members in Adams County (6 municipalities), the City and County of Broomfield, and the City of Aurora. Visit RMPPartnership.org to learn more.

Bridge Partnership Investments begin at $5,000 or reciprocal representation within leadership tables. For questions about becoming a Bridge Partner, contact Jody Nowicki at JodyNowicki@RMPBackbone.org.

BRIDGE PARTNER

- Seat on Partnership Accountability Network alongside other C-Suite executives and community leaders including an opportunity to serve on the RMP Steering Committee) who have come together to drive and hold accountability for the Partnership's shared work to improve economic and social mobility across the region.
- Access to disaggregated national, state, and local data as well as trends and best practices from professional and academic sources related to the shared work of the network.
- Opportunity to develop organizational capability around following the nationally proven outcomes focused approach with training and coaching through the Institute.
- Opportunity for community members with lived experience / who are most impacted to provide perspective and elevate their voices to decisionmakers.
- Invitations to exclusive networking events.
- Affiliation with StriveTogether's nationally recognized network of more than 70 nationwide communities, providing access to a proven framework and best practices.
- Organization name listed as Bridge Partner on RMP's website.
- Mutual representation on leadership tables that hold accountability and influence over areas critical to improving economic and social mobility for the region, and are responsible for shared work to shift policy, align resources, work collaboratively, and align Backbone support to this end. This includes the:
 - Policy and Legislative Advisory Network, which is comprised of local, state, and federal elected officials, and policy leaders from investing organizations who drive the policy and advocacy strategy for the network based on what is needed to achieve shared targets and priorities.
 - Collaborative Action Networks, which are comprised of leadership from those working on the ground who determine collective action needed to meet shared targets and priorities in identified collective work areas.
- Receive Digital Bridge Partner badge to recognize your organization's annual commitment to the Partnership's shared work to improve economic and social mobility across the region.
- Additional benefits negotiable contingent on investment level.